NEWS RELEASE

MCSO ESOL and CHISPA Celebrate Holiday Flavors

(Columbus, GA)- The Columbus State University Hispanic Association (CHISPA) and the English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) Department of the Muscofee County School District unite to celebrate a multicultural holiday event: The Third Annual Christmas Flavors from Around the World. The public can sample cuisine from nations around the world on Friday, December 5, 2008 from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at Columbus State University's International House located at 6 Clearview Circle.

Admission is only $5.00. Proceeds will support ESOL outreach efforts. Contact Paola Machado at (706) 507-8852 for advance tickets or e-mail chispa@colstate.edu. Tickets will also be available at the door.

ESOL Lead Teacher Doris Brown says, "CSU supports the MCSO ESOL program with strong commitment. This is the third year that CHISPA has held the holiday event and used the profits for ESOL families."

For more information, contact Doris Brown, (706) 748-2120 (English) or (706) 748-2135 (Spanish) or e-mail communications@mcsdga.net.
