NEWS RELEASE

National PTA Reflections Winner 2008-2009

(Columbus, GA) – Muscofee County has a National PTA Award of Merit winner. Shelby Ramsay is a third grade student at Mathews Elementary School. Her film/video received an Award of Merit in the Intermediate Division.

Only eighteen Awards of Excellence, three for each grade division in each of the six arts areas, is awarded by the National PTA Organization. Students have the opportunity to enter in any of six areas: literature, musical composition, photography, visual art, dance choreography, and film/video production. The 2008-2009 theme is “Wow...”

The National PTA Reflections program is an arts recognition program that provides children in Pre-Kindergarten through Grade 12 the opportunity to express creativity through the arts. Now, in its 40th year, the Reflections program attracts an average of 700,000 participants from across the country.
