NEWS RELEASE

Kendrick High School “Steps to High School”

(Columbus, GA) – All incoming 9th graders of Kendrick High School are invited to attend a program entitled “Steps to High School.” This program is designed to motivate the incoming freshmen and empower them with the knowledge needed to be successful in high school.

All freshmen participants will attend concurrent sessions (3 and a half hours), which will mainly focus on math standards. Participants will also receive tips on:

- Graduation Requirements for the Class of 2013
- Information on End of Course Tests
- Grade Point Average/Calculation

The sessions will be conducted on Tuesday, June 23, Wednesday, June 24, and Thursday, June 25, 2009, from 8:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. daily. Parents will be invited to participate in a celebration on Thursday, June 25, at 11:00 a.m.

For more information, contact Dr. Cleo Griswold, Principal of Kendrick High School, (706) 565-2960, or e-mail communications@mcsdga.net .
