NEWS RELEASE

Kendrick Students Help Save Lives

(Columbus, GA) – Students at Kendrick High School help give the gift of life by donating blood through an American Red Cross blood drive to benefit the people of Haiti. Forty-three (43) Kendrick students participated in the community service event on Monday, February 22, 2010. A total of thirty-one (31) pints of blood was collected, enough to save the lives of ninety-three individuals.
