Jordan High Students Earn President's Volunteer Service Award

(Columbus, GA)-Three Jordan High School seniors earn presidential recognition for their dedication as community service volunteers. Each student received the President's Volunteer Service Award. Julian Plowden and Jasmine Alfred received a Gold medal for more than 250 hours of community service and Jacob Hopkins received a Bronze medal for 131 hours of community service at various organizations. The President's Volunteer Service Award recognizes individuals, families, and groups that have achieved a certain standard, which is measured by the number of hours of service over a 12-month period or cumulative hours earned over the course of a lifetime.
