NEWS RELEASE

2010 Best Practices Institute

(Columbus, GA)- The Muscofee County School District (MCSD) Professional Learning Department hosts the Best Practices Institute (BPI) Monday, June 7 - Thursday, June 10, 2010, at Columbus State University from 8:00 a.m. - 4:15 p.m.

“Some of the best and highly qualified presenters will share strategies to help build relationships and make learning engaging, relevant and rigorous,” said professional learning specialist Angie Blackstock .

Keynote speakers include Dave Weber of Weber and Associates of Kennesaw, Georgia and Ron Clark, the founder of the Ron Clark Academy in Atlanta, Georgia. Weber will address participants on Monday, June 7, 2010, at 8:00 a.m. and Clark will speak Thursday, June 10, 2010, at 8:00 a.m. MCSD Superintendent, Dr. Susan Andrews, will also host a special session, Excellence Must Be a Habit, on Tuesday, June 8, 2010, at 10:00 a.m. Each BPI session focuses on a hot topic in instruction and provides strategies and methods to guide participants in strengthening instructional programs.

“It is our mission to make a difference in the lives of our students by improving instruction in order to meet the diverse educational needs of students and to meet the ever-changing society and instructional demands on teachers and instructional leaders,” added Blackstock.
