NEWS RELEASE

Clubview Exhibition Honors Veterans

(Columbus, GA)-Fifth grade students at Clubview Elementary engage in an in-depth collaborative study known as the exhibition, which requires students to identify, investigate, and offer solutions to real life issues or problems. The 2012 exhibition is called The Military Means the World to Me. Students find ways to show appreciation for veterans and to help with their needs. Each class collects pictures of family members and friends who are veterans and display the branch, name, relationship to the student, and places the veteran was stationed while in the military.

The exhibition study kicks off with a parade in honor of all veterans around Clubview Elementary and Richards Middle School at 9:45 a.m. on Friday, November 9, 2012, in celebration of Veterans Day, which is Sunday, November 11, 2012. Veterans, family and friends receive invitations from students. The students also team with The House of Heroes and collect donations like items to help stock the shelves of the organization with materials used to work on the homes of veterans in need.

Prior to a ceremony to honor the veterans, color guard members of Hardaway High, cheerleaders from Richards Middle School, and Clubview students will be featured in the parade that will begin in front of Clubview Elementary, 2836 Edgewood Road. Following the parade, veterans will attend the ceremony, enjoy a reception, and view the special exhibition.

Central office administrators, board members, and media representatives are also invited. For more information, call Clubview Elementary, 706-565-3017.
