MEDIA RELEASE

Delay School/Office Start Time Notice

Thursday, February 13

(Columbus, GA)-After consulting with weather and emergency management agencies, the Muscogee County School District will delay all school start times (elementary, middle, and high schools) by two hours on Thursday, February 13. Administrative office openings will also be delayed by two hours for all employees on Thursday, February 13. Crossing guards will also delay reporting to work by 2 hours. All buses will run two hours later than the normal scheduled pick-up time. Sack breakfast and regular lunch will be served at all schools. We have also been notified that the Columbus Parks and Recreation Before School Program is cancelled for Thursday morning. The Columbus Parks and Recreation After School program will be in session Thursday afternoon. All after school activities and events are still scheduled unless otherwise notified of cancellation. In addition to district phone and e-mail updates, all employees and parents should monitor our district website, MCSD Facebook page, news reports and radio broadcasts, or call (706)748-2046 for notices or updates.
