Rothschild Beta Club Students to Attend National Leadership Summit

(Columbus, GA)-Seven members of the Rothschild Leadership Academy's Beta Club plan to attend the National Junior Beta Club Leadership Summit, in Jekyll Island, Georgia, March 31-April 1, 2016. The National Junior Beta Club Summit is a service focused leadership summit featuring all new leadership challenges and a formal dinner with Ted Wiese, a motivational speaker.

Participants learn to engage and promote positive leadership skills through team building activities. Students embrace active learning in a focused and creative environment.

“A variety of methods and models are used to expose students to multiple college and career avenues at the national summit,” said Dr. Michael Forte, Principal of Rothschild Leadership Academy. “In addition, students are provided the opportunity to form life-long relationships with other Beta Club members from around the country.”
